REMARKS.—The market for Flour during the week has been very active, and the receipts, though fair, are unequal to the demand, and the market has had a further advance on all grades. The stocks on hand are small.—We note sales during the week of some 900 bbls within our quotations, which we revise as follows: Family 65¢; Extra 75¢; Super 85¢; and to 55¢; Fine 47¢ to 48¢; low and medium grades are very scarce. Wheat is active with slight decline; offerings of 1033 bushels red wheat at 127, 130, 132, 135, 137, 139 and 141. Corn is dull, with no shipping demand; offerings of 1272 bushels mixed, with sales at 11¢ and 11½; one lot inferior sold at 10½; small offerings of yellow brought 11½. Rye is dull, with light receipts; sales at 11¢. Oats are firm; offerings of 110 bushels, with sales at 6¢ and 6½. A few bbls Corn-in-the-ear were offered and withdrawn, $5.25 being refused. Small offerings of Corn Meal, but no sales reported.

BALTIMORE CATTLE MARKET, May 12, 1870. Beef Cattle—Prices to day ranged as follows: Cows and Steers at 50¢ to 55¢; ordinary steers, Oxen and Cows at 40¢ to 45¢; quality Beefers at 75¢ to 85¢, and the very best Beefers at 85¢ to 95¢ per 100 lbs, the average price being about $7.25 gross. The market was active to-day at an advance of 37¢ per 100 lbs on the rates of last week.

Sheep.—The market has been fully supplied during the past week and dull, with a downward tendency, although rates have been pretty fully maintained. Prices to-day ranged as follows: Sheep at 44¢ to 45¢ per lb gross. Lambs at 50¢ to 55¢ per head.

Hogs.—The receipts during the past week have been fully equal to the demand, but rates remain unchanged. Prices to-day ranged as follows: At 12¢ to 13¢ per 100 lbs net for fair to good Hogs.

To the editor of the Alexandria Gazette.
In reply to the card of Mr. Samuel Grigg, published in yesterday's Gazette, I have to say that Mr. Grigg has made no effort, so far as I am aware, to keep his cellar dry for the last twelve months, and the last time it was pumped out I bore part of the expense. The water that accumulates in my cellar I pump out every day.
my 13-14 W. H. WINDSOR.

To the Voters of Alexandria.—I respectfully announce myself a candidate for the office of Collector of Taxes of the Northern District, and if elected will endeavor to discharge the duties faithfully.
my 13-14 JOHN W. SIMPSON.

By L. D. Harrison, Auctioneer.

LOCAL NEWS.

COUNTY REGISTRATION.—The registration books in Alexandria County closed at sun set yesterday evening with the following result:
Jederson Township..... White, Colored, 41, 162
Arlington "..... 88, 192
Washington "..... 55, 33
180 380
The vote of the county at the last election was: White, 155; colored, 462.

LOCOMOTIVE EXPLOSION.—A telegram received here to-day states that the locomotive Knoxville, on the Virginia and Tennessee railroad, exploded about 4 o'clock this morning, one mile west of Lynchburg, killing the fireman, Mr. Aiken, and throwing his body 50 feet from the track, and, it is thought, fatally injuring the engineer, Mr. Calahan.

LAND SALE.—G. W. Janney has sold to a gentleman from N. Y. the farm of Thornton Nichols, near Hamilton, Loudoun county, for $90 per acre—contains about 160 acres. It sold in 1865 for $59 per acre.

A subscriber, at Markham, complains of the irregular receipt of his copy of the Gazette. We have never before known so many complaints of mail irregularities, along the line of railroads and country post offices.

BASE BALL CLUBS.—Notices of Base Ball Clubs, are inserted, one time, for 50 cents.—C. O. D.

LOCAL BREVITIES.—There are two boat clubs now in this city, one composed of students of St. John's Academy; the other of the friends of the owners of the yacht Lady of the Lake. Both are preparing for the summer's sport.

A meeting of the Radicals of the third ward was held last night in the colored school house on Alfred between Princess and Orange streets, but its proceedings have been kept secret.

The disorderly behavior of the parties who now frequently assemble at the Virginia end of the Alexandria Canal Aqueduct to witness dog and chicken fights, and similar sports, has become so annoying to the residents of that neighborhood and to persons travelling on the aqueduct road, that the Sheriff of the county has been applied to for a constabulary force to abate what has become a nuisance.

A meeting of the Conservative voters of the county will be held at Ball's Cross Roads to-night. Speakers from this city will be expected to present.

Great complaints are made of the ravages committed by the goats upon the city walls and shrubbery of the gardens in the district, and the police have been instructed to take up such of those animals as are found going at large.

The practice of pitching trap balls in the streets is now carried on by the boys all over the city to the peril and great loss of inoffensive people, who are so unfortunate as to be a few years older than those engaged in the dangerous sport.

The bad behavior of the boys who congregate at the depot of the Alexandria and Washington Railroad has been complained of at police headquarters, and will be attended to.

The seizure given by the Harmonics at their hall last night was a most agreeable affair, and passed off to the entire satisfaction of all who were present.

The Washington Republican rarely reaches this city by mail until the morning after that of its publication.

Passengers who landed here from the Aquia Creek steamer yesterday morning are loud in their complaints of the inconvenience to which travellers by that line are subjected.

It was raining hard, there was no shelter on the wharf, no light, the mud ankle deep, and a headlong plunge into the Potomac imminent at every step.

The April showers this year were reserved for May.

A company of Mormons, recruits from Tennessee, North Carolina and Cherokee Georgia, passed through this city this evening via the O. & A. M. R. R. train, on their way to join the rest of the brethren in Utah.

Mr. Charles L. Neale, marble worker, has just erected in the cemetery lot of the late C. C. Smoot one of the handsomest monuments, and the largest, contained in that city of the dead. It is 15 feet high, and 3 feet square at the base, and is made from a chaste and beautiful design.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—Mr. Richard has declined being a candidate for the Mayoralty, so that now the contest will be between Mr. Bowen and Mr. Emery.

Strawberries from the South are now sold in this city.

The National Race Course is now designated, and will be hereafter known as the "National Driving Park and Fair Ground" association.

A "Bowen ratification meeting" is to be held to-night, for which great preparations have been made.

Congressional excursions are all the rage here this spring. Those which have already taken place have proved so agreeable to the participants that others, on a more extended scale, are talked of. A large excursion company, embracing many Senators and members, and their families, will leave here on Saturday morning next for the mouth of the Potomac river.

POLICE REPORT.—MAYOR'S OFFICE.—There were no cases of a criminal character at the Mayor's office this morning.

MAJESTY'S OFFICE.—A colored girl, named Martha, a former slave of Mr. John Campbell, for stealing some boxes of paper collars from the clothing store of S. Blodheim, was discharged. She had a confederate, another colored girl, whose arrest she promised to effect. The two were making arrangements to extend their operations when detected.

WATCH REPORT.—Sky clear and bright with straggling clouds at intervals. There were but in different sections of the city but they all passed off quietly. There were no disturbances anywhere and no arrests, nor were there any lodgers at the watch house.

S. BLONDEHEIM invites the public to see his stock of fine goods, with which his Clothing Store is filled, and where he wishes to accommodate the public with whatever in his line they may desire. See his notice.

NOTICE.—Carpenters, Builders and others interested in improvements are invited to call at the Alexandria Hotel, opposite the Post office, and see one of the best J. BENNETT, my 13-14 Agent.
